Module 1: Development Theory

Lecture 1: Development Thought in Historical Perspective

Rostow in Simon, D. (ed) 2006. Fifty Key Thinkers on Development, Taylor & Francis, US. (7 pages)

Lecture 2: Critical Theories of Development

Lecture 3: Theory and Practice in Development

Module 2: Social Processes of Development

Lecture 4: Education and Development

Lecture 5: Social Exclusion and Legal Regimes

Module 3: Economic Processes of Development

Lectures 6-8

This will be the principal book for the three lectures. There are chapters by highly renowned scholars such as Peter Timmer, Justin Lin, Lee Alston and Erik Thorbecke on topics such as structural transformation, industrial upgrading, poverty and inequality. The book covers Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Reading instructions will be given for the different lectures.

The chapters may be downloaded free of charge as part of an OUP/LU agreement.

Module 4: Political Processes of Development

Lecture 9: The Global Governance of Development

Lecture 10: New Actors and Alliances in the Global Governance of Development

Blowfield, Michael and Catherine S. Dolan (2014) “Business as a development agent: evidence of possibility and improbability”, Third World Quarterly, 35(1): 22-42. (20 p)

Lecture 11: Development Alternatives

Suggested books for the final book review

